Barnard's Trial to last a Week Yet.

Saratoga letters state that the Barnard trial will probably be concluded in a week. Barnard will be a witness on the stand during the week. Also Thomas C Durant and Stokes the murderer of Fisk.

The Archive Question.

A letter is published from John T Pickett, defending his sale of late rebel documents to the Government on the ground that they of right belonged to the United States as a residuary legacy of the defunct Confederacy. He says the abuse on the subject of the sale comes from speculating railroaders who now will be unable to swindle the Government with bogus claims.

Cuban Privateer Delivered to the U S Marshal.

PROVIDENCE, July 28—The Cuban privateer Pioneer which has been lying at Newport in custody of Collector Macy for violation of revenue laws passed into the charge of Marshal Coggeshall on Saturday on an order from President Grant to hold the vessel for violation of the neutrality of 1818.

Speech of Schurz at Greensboro.

GREENSBORO (N. C) July 28—Carl Schurz spoke last night saying that he had belonged to the anti slavery party all his life and if not now it was not his fault. He said that the Ku Klux law placed great power in the hands of the Administration, and is now being used for the basest purposes. The federal arm was being reached into the affairs of States. The Cincinnati banner was that of the true Republican party. He said that if the colored vote now composed and solid, were divided between the two political parties, both would be equally interested in securing them their rights. He read a letter from Pleasanton relative to the San Domingo business closing with the statement that now it simply remained a question of veracity between Pleasanton and President Grant.

Greeley Not to Orate for Several Months.

NEW YORK, July 28—Horace Greeley, in his remarks to friends yesterday, intimated that he would make no more speeches for several months.

INDIANAPOLIS, July 28—The Park street Methodist Church to-day raised $30,000 to complete an edifice which is to be the finest in the State.

WASHINGTON CITY.

Frauds on Indians.

WASHINGTON July 28—The stenographer who accompanied the Sub-Committee of Indian Affairs on their recent trip to the Indian territory, has returned. Very important testimony has been taken, disclosing immense and almost incredible frauds upon the Cherokees, Creeks, Cheetaws and Chickasaws, through means of corrupt bargains by Indian delegates with Washington lobbyists and agents. The Committee is said to be indignant against the persons involved in the robberies on ignorant Indians, and cancellation and annulment of such existing contracts will be insisted upon.

The Claims Commission.

The records of the American and British Commission organized under the Treaty of Washington will be removed to Newport, Rhode Island in September, to be ready for the session of the commission on the 11th, in time for the filing of claims, which terminates on the 25th. The number of British cases is 216. American only 192. Of seventeen cases thus far definitely decided awards in only three cases have been made, others having been disallowed and one dismissed.

CANADA

Franco-Mexican Affairs.

PARIS, July 28—The French Government contemplates the resumption of diplomatic relations with Mexico. The death of Juarez has removed the only obstacle thereto.

CALIFORNIA.

From San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO July 28—Caleb T Fay is spoken of for the Republican nominee for Congress from this district.

The California Theater is closed from to day pending the complete remodeling of the entire interior.

The company preparing for submarine mining operations at Gold Bluff have expended ten thousand dollars in preliminary explorations. They have purchased the schooner Weed Queen, constructed a diving bell of mammoth proportions and nearly completed all arrangements for immediate operations. They will give an exhibition of their apparatus in San Francisco harbor at an early date.

This is the first warm clear morning for several weeks.

The Republican primaries to be held to day promise to be very quiet.

The Chinaman who was so fearfully mangled in the fight yesterday is still living. His assailant has not been arrested.

A suburb of London has just been the scene of a tragedy which in brutal ferocity almost eclipses the most terrible of the many fearful deeds of blood recorded in the criminal annals of that great metropolis. A coarse incontinous savage a veritable wild beast it appears even in his sober moments, drank a pint and a half of whiskey on a recent Saturday night and was then in an condition for the devil which he afterwards perpetrated. He was living with a woman who occupied the place of a wife driven from her wretched home by the most inhuman cruelty. Two children, one of them belonging to the wronged wife and the other to her successor lived with them. For some reason not stated the ruffian determined to kill all of them and had attempted the deed on a previous occasion. For this he was arrested at last off with a slight fine for being drunk. Never was immunity more wrongly placed however as he immediately proceeded to prime himself afresh for the deed and on the Saturday night referred to, the rum crazed fiend, armed himself with a heavy bar of iron beat out the brains of the woman and two children and then cut his own throat. The case is a most hideous result of a long career of drunkenness and its attendant course of life and forcibly illustrates the power of that fiend which makes of man a howling demon who finds no depth of brutality too low for his reach.

POLITICAL NOTES.

We hate Greeley but anything to get a party [illegible] power that will pay us for our niggers. That is the way the rebels talk.

William Dean Chairman of the Democratic State Central Committee of Delaware resigns his place refusing to support Greeley.

The Hartford Post which has been leaning toward Baltimore has passed into other hands and will stand up straight for Grant.

The Chicago Times (Dem) has a letter from a Democrat of Mississippi who says that twenty five thousand Democrats of that State will refuse to vote for Greeley.

Of the twenty seven Republican papers in Missouri which went with Gratz Brown and Schurz for State Reform all but one (Schurz's paper) are out and out for Grant.

John J Jacob of West Virginia, the present Governor of that State and a Democrat, repudiates Greeley. So does John J Davis, present Democratic Congressman.

The Chicago Courier (German Republican), which favored the Liberal Republican movement, says it regards Greeley as the Democratic candidate now, whom it cannot support.

On the 15th inst Jasper Johnson was at the 'Liberal' headquarters in New York City. He is reported almost every day in the list of callers. They have a free lunch table there.

The Suffolk county Watchman and the Port Jefferson Press, both Democratic papers, refuse to support Greeley. The former is edited by Mr Reeves, late Democratic member of Congress.

An Albany (N Y) Democrat was asked the other day for whom he would vote. His answer was we give it literally "For Greeley, damn him! That's the way many of them feel about it.

The New York Herald classifies its exchanges as for Grant or Greeley, and taking their average circulations, finds that the Grant papers number in circulation 600,000 against 500,000 for Mr Greeley.

The Tribune wishes the Ku Klux to "lay low" just now. If, in their zeal for Mr. Greeley, they should murder a score or two Republicans, it would hurt "the cause." If the Democrats succeed they can make up for lost time.

The Linn (Mo) Democrat refuses to be delivered to its late long opponent. For itself it says "August Belmont is reported to have said that the Democracy must take Greeley or die. Then we propose to die a little, as it is put death anyhow."

A colored man in Ohio said the other day "I do not know much, for I was a slave all my younger days, but I know who my friends and benefactors are, the candidates who are supported by the Ku Klux and their apologists can't get my vote."

The Philadelphia Age (Dem) says "An influential and well informed Democrat of New Jersey writes to us 'I have become better satisfied than before that there are a great many Democrats who will not vote for Greeley making the loss of New Jersey almost certain.'"

The Hartford Courant says Voltaire used to say of the diminutive territory of Geneva, "When I shake my wig I cover the whole Republic with powder." It is the proudest boast of Horace Greeley "When I put on my white hat I cover the whole Democratic party with felt."

The Cincinnati Times says "We hear on all sides of prominent Ohio Democrats who will not vote the Greeley ticket. At a very moderate calculation we believe there are 30,000 Democrats in this State who will either stay away from the polls in November, or else vote for Grant."

An old Democrat from the backwoods, arguing in one of the hotel-parlors at Baltimore in favor of regularly nominating Greeley, said. "If you nominate Greeley here he is the best man living, but if you adjourn without nominating him he is the same d—d old fool that he always was."

The Milwaukee Sentinel calls attention to the fact that Horace Greeley's latest compliment to Doolittle, President of the Baltimore Convention, was when he said that "the Republican majority in Wisconsin had been increased over 4,000 by the popular detestation of James R. Doolittle, his words and his ways."

Fifty leading Democrats of Virginia, in different parts of the State, have come out for Grant. Henry A Wise's letter is doing wonderful work against Greeley, and although many of his former admirers now pronounce him crazy, he is more universally admired in the country, and has more influence with the masses than any half dozen men in Virginia.

As an indication of the completeness with which the New York Tribune surrenders itself to serve the purposes of the Democracy in a war upon the policy of the Administration, we find it on Monday sneering at the humane policy of the Administration toward the Indians, and seeking to bring contempt upon a peaceful recommendation of General Howard. This is the Tribune whose idol is peace, whose great abomination is the military power.

The Boston Traveller says "Tammany retains its control of the Democratic party. Four years ago it forced Horatio Seymour upon an unwilling party, and yesterday at Baltimore it forced Horace Greeley, a bitter pill, down the Democratic throat. The election of Seymour would have transferred to Washington the headquarters of the Tweeds and Oakey Halls and Hoffmans, and the election of Greeley would produce a similar result!"

The members of the Democratic National Committee in Washington, according to a dispatch to the Evening Post are greatly dissatisfied with that part of Mr Greeley's New York speech where he said that he was as much of a Republican as he ever was. This they regard as very indiscreet, and calculated to injure him with the Democrats, while his additional declaration that he considered them to be as much Democrats as ever will injure him with the Republicans.

The report that the Cincinnati Commercial had taken leave of Greeley was incorrect. But it admits that Greeley has no following in Ohio. One of its correspondents adds his portion in the following telegram from Auglaize county, Ohio:

The Baltimore nominations elicited no enthusiasm here. They are received by the Democrats with sullen silence. A prominent Democrat and ex official says that five hundred Democrats in one section of this county will remain at home on the 4th of November next. We have found two Greeley Republicans in the county, one of whom is very doubtful.

The Freeman's Journal like the Chicago Times, remains firm against Greeley. In view of his nomination at Baltimore, it says "Our road is straight before us. The nomination of Greeley at Baltimore by a packed and non deliberative body will be the formal dissolution of the Democratic party. With its dissolution there perishes the last party that ever professed fidelity to law, to constitution or to treaty faith given. There remains for us, then only mobs, Radical Granites and Radical Greeleyites! Reduced to this, bayonets are our only protection. Grant has, at least, the education and bearing of a soldier. Greeley knows only the discipline of the broom stick."

PACIFIC RAILROAD BUILDING.—Some interesting light is thrown on the subject of Pacific Railroad building by the evidence in a suit now on trial in a California court. In the 1863 Placer county subscribed $250 000 to the capital stock of the Central Pacific Railroad. Seven years later when the road was completed, the company made vigorous efforts to buy up the outstanding stock and Placer county and others sold out. These counties are now dissatisfied with their bargain, and Placer county is pushing a suit for a share in the profits made in the construction of the road, demanding for her share $15 000,000 and 1 000 000 acres of land. The people allege that the corporation received from various sources bonds and lands to the value of $156 825 360. The Directors, under the name of the Contract and Finance Company, divided among themselves profits amounting to $111,299 328 and the stockholders received nothing. Thus, in effect the county of Placer gave these capitalists a quarter of a million of dollars. It is but natural that they should desire to recover something but they have a difficult job before them, since they have given up their title to ownership in the road.

Miscellaneous News.

Greeley has engaged quarters for the season at East Hampton Long Island.

A Herald London special says that Stanley was greatly honored at Paris, at a breakfast given him by Minister Washburne. General Sherman was present and seemed greatly interested in Stanley's maps. Livingstone's letters were published all over Europe.

A Boston special says that employers will probably concede to an increase of wages to dissatisfied cripples.

A meeting of prominent Italians was held last night to make arrangements for the celebration of the unification of Italy. An executive committee was appointed.

D C Forney, late of the Washington Chronicle, has a lengthy communication in the Herald reviewing the past career of Senator Cameron, and his responsibility for the present difficulty in the party in Pennsylvania. Forney says his relations to the Evans' claim, in which he was attacked by Cameron, were purely of a legitimate character.

Destructive Fire.

Barger, Hurlburt & Livingstone's sugar refinery, on Second street, was entirely destroyed by fire this morning. Loss said to be very heavy.

Another large fire is now burning in Church street.

Loss by burning of the sugar refinery of Barger, Hurlburt & Livingstone, this morning, is estimated at $300,000. It was fully insured. One wall fell across the street, burying Michael Downery who was extricated with slight injuries.

The moulding mill of Sherman Bros., on Bond street, Brooklyn, burned this morning, together with an adjoining carriage factory belonging to F Dillon. Loss probably $75,000.

Governor Randolph of New Jersey denies that he received a bribe of $30,000 from the Erie Ring as charged by the Times.

Murderers Arrested.

FORTRESS MONROE, July 29—Buck Smith, an oysterman, and a negro, of Hampton, are under arrest on the confession of the latter for the murder of Sergeant Baker of the artillery at Wilcock, some three months ago.

More Testimony in the Barnard Case.

SARATOGA, July 29—Mr Bushnell, director of the Union Pacific Railroad Co., testified in the Barnard impeachment case this morning, detailing the proceedings against that road under Barnard's injunctions and orders in 1869.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

Heavy Damages for the United States.

BRUSSELS July 29.—The Independance Belge states that the awards in the cases of the privateers Florida and Alabama will, together, amount to a million and a half pounds.

From Geneva—Reported Bombardment.

GENEVA, July 29.—The Swiss Times confirms the report now current that the tribunal of arbitration have decided in favor of America in the case of the privateer Florida, on the ground that the British Government did not use sufficient precautions to prevent the departure of vessels from English ports. The Times also says that the Board of Arbitration to day took up the case of the Alabama. The Times further says that the Board disallowed the [illegible] of the Retribution Government at [illegible] out of deprecation of the Florida, Jeff. Davis, Music and several other smaller Confederate cruisers. The reasons are that the charges of negligence on the part of the British Government concerning these vessels were not proven.

CALIFORNIA.

From San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 29—Weather warm and fine.

The Republican primaries are passing off exceedingly quiet. Very little canvassing going on.

Thomas O Neil and John Carr will be examined to morrow on a charge of fraudulent voting in the Twelfth Ward at the late Democratic primaries. It is alleged that 138 fraudulent votes were returned from that ward alone.

The Central Pacific Company have suspended operations at the Potrero for three months. They are about laying the foundation for a large building on Fourth and Townsend streets, which is said to be intended for general headquarters.

Stocks very quiet to day. Only 6 883 shares changed hands at the morning Board—generally at lower prices.

A workman fell from the Oakland wharf to day, while fishing, and was drowned.

William Stanwood, a California pioneer, a native of Boston, who for the last fifteen years has been almost constantly employed about the City Hall as an assistant clerk, died to day, after a very brief illness.

The Placer Gold Mining and Canal Company to day filed a certificate of increase of capital stock from $400,000 to $1,200 000.

INTERIOR CALIFORNIA DISPATCHES.

OROVILLE, July 29.—Judge Safford, of the County Court of Butte county, this morning sentenced John Horn and D B Leonard to five years each in the State Prison for cattle stealing, and Charles O'Neil to two years for horse-stealing in the daytime.

GENERAL NOTES AND NEWS.

The transit of the planet Venus across the sun's disc will occur on December 8, 1874. This phenomenon, which is expected to be of great interest not only to astronomy but to the natural and physical history of the globe, has not occurred since 1751.

At one of his lectures George Francis Train shouted "Now, then, anybody can ask me questions." Whereupon an old lady got up and said "Mr Train I would like to know what makes a pot leg always burn in two in the middle?" The great American traveler was at a nonplus.

A special to the World from Geneva, dated July 23d, says the consideration of the case of the Florida has been concluded by the Court, and it is believed that the Court of Arbitration has awarded two million six hundred thousand dollars for the Florida depredations. The case of the Alabama was commenced to day.

Major Morderwell, in one of Grant's battles, was shot through the intestines and the ball passed out at his back. It entered through his vest pocket where were his gold pen and holder, and took the former and part of the latter into the Major's body. Two weeks ago at Geneseo, New York, a large fragment of the pen made its appearance through an irritated swelling in the Major's neck.

The most remarkable example of quick railroad time was that made by the train which bore Tom Scott and party from New Orleans to Philadelphia recently. The party left New Orleans at 7 30 P M Thursday, and arrived in Philadelphia on Sunday at 1 30 P M., having travelled the entire distance—1,602 miles—in 66 hours, being an average of 24½ miles an hour and 582 miles a day, including stoppages.

The Commissioner of the General Land Office has decided that soldiers who entered homesteads prior to the recent act of Congress known as the Homestead law are now entitled to have the time they have served in the army deducted from the time heretofore required to perfect title to home steads, the same as those who made their entries after the passage of the said act, and therefore that soldiers who made homestead entries under the old law may receive their patents by making proof of service and showing compliance with the law and regulations without waiting for the expiration of five years from the date of entry.

Bolting Democratic journals are multiplying. The Terre Haute (Indiana) Journal and the Seymour Democrat leading journals in Indiana, refuse to support Greeley. The Savannah (Ga.) News, of the same party, says that Grant will beat Greeley twenty thousand votes at least in the State.

THE TERRITORIES.

The Seattle folks want a daily mail.

A large and substantial wharf is being built at Tacoma.

The Postmaster of Boise City has received orders for an aggregate sum of $5 15/ 4"

Some of the boats on Puget Sound now carry passengers free. Opposition we suppose.

It is r m rk ble to observe that as far back a history record reaches mankind was speculating keenly regarding the sources of the Nile Herodotus the father of history who lived soon ething more than 400 years before Christ passed from Greece over to Egypt to gather what materials he could for his work and while in Egypt he visited the keeper of Minerva s temple at Sais This priest was the only person whom Herodotus found who pretended to know anything about the sources of the Nile His account was as follows

Far to the south there are two mountains rising into sharp peaks The sources of the Nile which are bottomless flow from between these mountains Half the water flows over Egypt and to the North and the other half o Ethiopia and the South That the fountains of the Nile are bottomless the king of Egypt proved by experiment for having caused a line to be twisted many thousand fathoms in length he let it down but could not find a bottom This statement is given by Herodotus in his Enterpe together with a great many other curious speculations concerning the Nile What is most curious is that Dr Livingstone has heard again and again from the natives this same statement regarding the sources of the Nile, substantially as given by Herodotus He has been on two occasions within a fortnight s march of these wonderful fountains of which the natives report four Two are said to flow north and to be the source of the Nile and the others to flow south and to be the source of the Zambesi But the want of provisions or the cowardice of his men had on each occasion stopped his progress

Herodotus, in the place in which he has given his account of the origin of the Nile in account which is likely to be verified after a lapse of twenty three hundred years goes on to speculate concerning the cause of the annual floods that sweep down the great river One of these ideas was that the north winds caused the swelling of the river by preventing the discharge of its waters into the sea This notion Herodotus dismissed, because he had observed that frequently those winds did not blow, yet the river produced the same effects Another idea was that the overflow was the result of the annual melting of snow, but this was also rejected by Herodotus, on the ground that as the stream flowed from a hot to a cold region it could not come from snow Altitude was not considered Still another idea was that the Nile flowed from the ocean and that the annual flood was a phenomenon analogous to the daily movements of the tides In Homeric geography Ocean was a stream flowing entirely around the earth, but Herodotus himself repudiated so crude a notion and calls this leading idea of Homeric geography an obscure fable

After stating these various theories the Father of History proceeds to give his own opinion He says that during the winter the sun being driven by storms out of his former course retires to the upper parts of Libya and it is natural that the country which this god is nearest to and over which he is should be most in want of water and that the native river streams should be dried up People now smile at these rude ideas Herodotus goes on to explain his meaning more at length He says that the sun passing over the upper parts of Libya, attracts the water to himself and throws it back upon the higher regions there the winds taking it up and dispersing it melt it and therefore the winds that blow from that country from the south and southwest are the most rainy of all The general idea is that during the winter while the sun is in that region he sucks up the water of the Nile and the stream runs very low but when he quits that region in the beginning of summer the water comes down from the heights and the river flows with a full stream Singular combination of ideas partly crude and partly correct

We have given these statements out of Herodotus simply as matter for the curious The time is at hand when the mysteries of the river of Egypt which have been a problem that civilized man has struggled in all ages to solve will be fully revealed The energy of the English speaking race will not let such a problem sleep and others besides Livingstone and Stanley will soon penetrate those wilds to fathom the secrets which nature has so long concealed

Benito Juarez

A California journal commenting on the death of the President of the Mexican Republic truly says that it is an event which deprives that country of the services of the only statesman whose administration gave promise of extricating Mexico from a state of chronic anarchy The following is a brief sketch of his life

Benito Juarez was born in 1807 at a village near Jatlan (at present known as Villa Juarez) in the State of Ojaca He is descended from pure aboriginal stock and was born in humble circumstances He prepared himself for the profession of the law in which he gained distinction Devoted to liberal ideas he took an active part in politics as a member of the Legislature of his native State He successfully went through the whole range of the judicial organization of his State from the position of Justice of the Peace to that of presiding Judge In 1846 he was elected Deputy to the Constitutional Congress in the City of Mexico During the period of peace he devoted himself to the opening of roads the increase of primary and higher schools and the reform of the financial administration and on returning from the Government he left in the public treasury a considerable sum of money In November 1857 President Comonfort made him Secretary of State and subsequently he was appointed President of the Supreme Court of Justice Under Comonfort the Liberal policy which Juarez advocated was urged forward provoking the hostility of the Church party to an extreme and laying the foundation of those civil feuds which led to the invasion of the French and the usurpation of Maximilian Juarez became President in 1858 on the retirement of Comonfort made a stand against the Mexican Constitution which in case of vacancy makes the Chief Justice ex officio President His history since then the part he took in the overthrow of Maximilian and the bold measures by which he retained his place as Chief Magistrate are familiar to every newspaper reader

Some days ago it was reported by telegraph that V I Stewart of New York had purchased the old form of Greeley and Colfax ballot and sailed to Oregon with a full load to carry the election by fraud It has been ascertained that the ballot in question was printed by Messrs Ilmes & Buchtinder of this city and is a fac simile of the typographical work

CITY.

THE FIRE — A ... last night ... was the ... day the bells of the ... sounded an alarm of fire A moment later ... was discovered that the fire ... consumed ... on a dwelling house on the north side of Washington ... street between Fifth and Sixth The fire companies were promptly at the scene and soon several streams of water were playing ... Fay The fire had caught by some means from the brick flue and was burning between the weather boarding and plastering It had gained some little headway before its existence was discovered By the time the engines reached the building volumes of smoke were issuing from under the shingles and at the eaves Some little delay occurred before the hose could be brought to bear directly on the fire In five or ten minutes after the alarm the flames was entirely subdued The building is a large two story house, and belongs to Mr A H Johnson The building has been insured for several years past but we learn that the policy has recently expired The total loss will not exceed $500 A Mrs Smith was living in the house at the time The furniture belonged to the second hand furniture dealers Messrs Burchard & Powers and was removed shortly after the alarm before the water had done much damage The building sustained as much damage from the immense quantities of water with which it was flooded as from the other element Every exertion possible was made and great credit is due the firemen for their gallantry and efforts

HANDSOME PROMENADE — A very neat and handsome triangular promenade is being constructed in front of the Clarendon Hotel, and midway between that building and the office of the steamship company It consists of a raised walk way triangle in form and about seven feet in width At the wide end it is about thirty feet wide and the two sides of the walk extend convergently about sixty feet when they join Inside this promenade is placed a handsome ... tation marble fountain, from a pipe in the center and top of which will issue a jet of water The water will be thrown several feet in the air, and fall with a curving spray back into the fountain basin Handsome shrubbery will be planted around the fountain and a substantial railing extend around on the inside of the walk to shield the interior from intrusion When completed, it will be one of the most delightful promenades in the city, although very limited in extent

FOR ABDUCTION — James F Smith was arraigned before Judge Denny yesterday on a charge of abducting the person of Miss Arabella Baldwin and marrying her It was claimed that she was under the age of sixteen and that Smith had made false representations in procuring a license After a careful hearing of the case Judge Denny discharged the prisoner from custody This left it optional with the young bride as to whether she would go with her anxious "parents" or cleave to her husband Like all sensible young ladies she concluded on the latter course with a hearty vengeance refreshing to witness The bride and groom were congratulated by friends and relatives and everything passed off swimmingly Love laughs at law

F STREET — Between North Second and North First streets, across Couch's Lake, there are being placed framed timbers on which will be laid the railroad track A side track will be laid from a point near the residence of the late Capt Couch and performing a curve will reach the edge of the lake at the foot of F street As soon as the track has been laid, the cars will commence to empty earth along the temporarily constructed bridge

AT JACKSONVILLE — The Crystal Palace Circus gave a performance at Jacksonville last evening This company, we understand, is under the management of Messrs Ryland and Geal, and are on a professional tour through the State Unless it is a better affair than some of the circus companies which passed through the State last year, they had better not come any farther north

LAID ACROSS — Communication between E and F streets, will be opened by this evening The intervening depression across that portion of Couch's Lake has been filled as high as the established grade and as wide as the street and sidewalks require A sufficient quantity of earth has been "dumped" and all that is now required is to level the earth and lay the sidewalk

WILL BE LAUNCHED — The hull of the little stern wheel steamer which is now being constructed at Smith's mill will be launched on Saturday next The river boat model and reflects credit on the builder Mr Stetson

COURT — Judge Boise went to Oregon City yesterday to hold Court for the trial of the contested election cases in Clackamas The trial will probably consume several days if not most of the week

PROSPECTING — Major M P Berry returned to this city on Saturday from the Dalles He has been at that place some days endeavoring to effect arrangements to pay a prospecting visit to the head waters of the Clackamas, Molalla and the North Fork of the Santiam, near the base of Mount Jefferson For the last three or four years parties who reside at the Dalles have visited the ... regions and prospected along the beds of the streams They have invariably brought back flattering accounts of the existence of the precious metal, and also some rich specimens From these accounts Mr Berry is determined to prospect for himself, and determine the correctness of these reported gold and silver bearing indications For that express purpose he visited the Dalles last week The gentleman who was out prospecting last season being unable to accompany Mr Berry as a companion and guide, recommended an Indian who had frequently been to the headwaters of the three streams named The Indian, however, could not be found and so the Major returned to this city He has, however, sent a messenger to look for the missing guide In a few days he will return to the Dalles and if the Indian can be found, and induced to accompany him, Mr Berry will lose no time in visiting the place to prospect for gold and silver From representations made to him, as well as from an examination of specimens brought back, he is very confident that rich placer diggings can be found in that region

Revolutions Never Go Backward.

The philosophical theory that the human system when weakened by disease oppressive heat, excessive labor, or any other cause should be toned and invigorated instead of being subjected to the depleting drugs is gaining ground every day The introduction of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters twenty years ago gave a powerful impetus to this common sense idea As the extraordinary efficacy of the Great Vegetable Restorative became known multitudes of debilitated invalids turned with loathing from the nauseous and strength destroying potions with which it was then the fashion to drench the sick to a renovating, appetizing tonic preparation derived from the finest roots herbs and barks pieced by botanical research at the disposal of medical science Revolutions never go backward From that time the process of importance of assisting and reinforcing nature in the struggles with disease has been more and more widely and keenly appreciated by the sick and the suffering In tens of thousands of households Hostetter's Bitters are looked upon as the one thing needful in cases of Dyspepsia General Debility Constipation Nervous Weakness Chills and Fever Bilious Affections and all conditions of the body and mind that betoken a lack of vital energy When the quicksilver ranges high and the solid flesh is resolving itself into a dew under the fervid temperature this agreeable tonic is the best possible safeguard against all the disorders generated by a sultry and unwholesome atmosphere It prevents and relieves lassitude and languor and enables the system to endure with impunity an unusual amount of exertion Of all invigorating and regulating imbibitions it is the purest and most wholesome

From Heine's Reisebilder

Tell me, who first invented time
Who counted the hours and minutes' chime
He was a cold and dreary wight;
He sat and thought thro' the winter night;
He counted the swift mice one and all,
And the even tick of the worm in the wall.

Tell me, who first invented kisses?
A man alive to all earthly blisses?
He kissed, and thought no harm alway,
'Twas in the bewitching month of May.
The flowers all over the earth were springing,
The sunshine laughed and the birds were singing.

Josie Mansfield at the Stokes Trial.

From the New York Herald, July 5th.

Stokes wore linen summer trousers, with a small black stripe, with handsome diamond pin, and black tie with white spots, beside the usual gay summer suit. He was looking well and in seeming better spirits than usual. His brother, Horace Stokes, and his mother, Mrs. Stokes, the latter dressed in deep mourning, were also in Court, the latter lady sitting near her son Edward. Mr. Stokes, Sr., came into Court later during the day and sat near the prisoner.

But the great attraction of the day was the appearance of the modern Cleopatra in Court, who is known in this fight as Helen Josephine Mansfield, and her cousin, Mrs. Marietta Williams, in addition to the mother of Mrs. Mansfield.

Mrs. Mansfield came into Court attired in all the magnificence that gold, silks, diamonds and laces could bestow. She had descended from her carriage in Broadway, and as a great many people have a curiosity to know how this Aspasia dresses, it shall be given. First, there is a heavy black silk underskirt, covered with some white film fabric which came to the throat, and over her shoulders was thrown a very handsome lace shawl pinned in front at the shoulders. Around her neck was a massive gold chain, pendant from which was an equally massive gold cross, and to make it complete, at her wrists were massive gold bracelets richly chased. Mrs. Mansfield wore a Henry Quatre hat, with a rich black veil and long lavender kid gloves. In her ears were large hoop earrings of gold and sapphire. She sat behind the reporters during the day, and on her right was her mother, Mrs. Mansfield, who was dressed in black silk, and who is still a very prepossessing woman. Mrs. Helen Josephine Mansfield is a woman of extraordinary fairness of skin, while her mother is darker, stouter, and shorter in stature. Helen Josephine has dark, liquid eyes, and her cousin, Mar[illegible] Williams, is a blonde, with tawny hair and dark blue eyes. Her dress was also a tawny-colored silk of two shades, and she had a tawny and black hat on the top of her head, and everything that was not rich on her person was tawny, with the exception of the heavy gold loop ear-rings, similar to those of Mrs. Mansfield.

When Mrs. Mansfield saw Stokes yesterday morning in Court it was for the first time since his confinement for the killing of Fisk, on January 6th. This woman, who is a magnificent Medusa, took a long, tender look at Stokes, and seemed for a moment to drink in his every feature. Still the Madiga kept her nerves well in hand, and thought, no doubt, of the many strange things that had happened since she last saw Stokes, six months ago, at the Yorkville Police Court, on that memorable Saturday morning. Stokes looked at Mrs. Mansfield, and just bowed in return to the look, and Mrs. Stokes, the mother of the prisoner, who is said to be a woman of strong religious feelings, regarded Mrs. Mansfield with a look that only a mother could fathom.

Another Byron Scandal.

The following appears as an advertisement in the London Daily News:

Lady Wentworth, my wife, having ceased to reside under my roof and living separate and apart from me, I HEREBY give notice that she has no authority to incur debts or obtain goods on my account, or so as to charge me, or any authority whatsoever to pledge my credit. I will not be ANSWERABLE or accountable for any DEBTS or liabilities which she may incur. Dated this 25th day of June, 1872. WENTWORTH.

Witness: WM. HY. COOPER, 8 Lincoln's-Inn Fields.

The above nobleman, Lord Wentworth, is the eldest surviving son of the Earl of Lovelace, and ~~would~~, did he so choose, assume the courtesy title of Viscount of Ockham. But, [illegible]ugh as through his mother—Ada, the daughter of Lord Byron—he inherits the Barony of Wentworth, he elects to be known by that dignity. Lady Wentworth, a lady [illegible]ing beauty, is the daughter of Rev. George Herlot, and sister to Mr. Herlot, who lately married Mdlle. Musurus, daughter of the Turkish Embassador.

The New York Tribune continues to growl at the Oregon Democracy. Here is its last: "In some parts of California, as in Los Angeles county, and in Oregon, as in Roseburg and vicinity, secession was more than a principle during the civil war; it was a passion. A handful of men in those parts have not yet given up their dreams of a possible Pacific Republic. They are also opposed to the nomination of Greeley and Brown, and utterly reject the action of the Baltimore Convention." These utterances from Greeley's paper will of course cause the Oregon Democracy to support him with enthusiasm!

Greeley will get all the votes in the Tribune office except the man who sets up his copy; he has been waiting years for a diabolical revenge, and now finds his opportunity.

FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

MONDAY, July 29, 1872.

Gold in New York to-day, 114¼.

Portland Legal Tender rates, 87c buying; 88 selling.

The steamship California, for Victoria and Puget Sound ports, is advertised to sail to-morrow.

The number of wagons of Eastern manufacture sold in this market is something wonderful. During the past year between six hundred and seven hundred have been sold here, at an average of about $160 each, making over $100,000 paid for Eastern wagons within a year.

Last year England paid the United States $184,000,000 for cotton. Making this up into fabrics, she cleared $388,000,000 of profit—more than doubling her money.

Secretary Boutwell recently made a statement concerning our national finances in connection with resumption of specie payments, from which we make this interesting extract:

The establishment of the public credit upon a firm basis is a condition precedent to the resumption of specie payments. While the public credit was impaired, a proposition to redeem the notes of the United States in specie would have been met at once by a demand which would have brought the Government to bankruptcy without delay. So, too, it is a condition precedent that the price of gold in the market shall not be materially above the value of paper, that resumption may be begun and maintained without interruption. It must, therefore, be accepted as a truth, for this country in its present condition, that the resumption of specie payments will not be the direct result of any act or series of legislation, nor can it be forcibly maintained by any act of the Government. It must be the natural result of an existing condition of things, and therefore it has been the policy of the Administration to promote that condition of things which would enable the Government to resume specie payments without any violently or prejudicially the great good of the day. During the year 1869 gold was at an average at a premium of 23½ per cent. This was due largely to the fact that the credit of the Government was impaired at home and abroad, gold-bearing six per cent. bonds being worth par., and thus far, the present year, it has ranged from 11¼ per cent. The further equalization of the value of coin and currency will depend upon the [illegible] of the business of the country, the amount of our exports, and the value of the foreign trade of the United States carried on in American vessels. There is but one measure of legislation, except such as foster the business interests of the country, that can facilitate or hasten the [illegible] of specie payments, and that is, a reduction by force of law of the volume of paper money in circulation. This policy the country has not been prepared to accept, nor am I prepared to advocate the adoption of a measure which, unless very gradual in its operation, would produce great injury to the business interests of the country, impair the revenues, and in the end cost more than the value of the result produced.

NATIONAL REPUBLICAN PLATFORM

ADOPTED BY THE REPUBLICAN PARTY, IN CONVENTION AT PHILADELPHIA, JUNE 6, 1872.

The Republican Party of the United States assembled in National Convention, in the city of Philadelphia, on the 5th and 6th days of June, 1872, again reiterates its faith and appends to its history and achievements its position upon the questions before the country:

1. During the eleven years of its supremacy it has accepted with grand courage the solemn issues of the time, has suppressed a gigantic rebellion, emancipated four millions of slaves, restored the Union and established universal freedom and equality before the law. Exhibiting unparalleled magnanimity in criminally punished no man for political offence, and has warmly welcomed all who gave their loyalty to the Government. It found the industries of the country prostrated, and has developed them to a degree unprecedented in any equal period. It found the national credit impaired, and has restored it. It found the public debt a confused and fraudulent mass, and has simplified it, and reduced the annual rate of interest. It found the currency a disgrace to the nation, and has substituted one which is sound and satisfactory throughout the world. It found three hundred millions of unproductive debt, and has reduced it to the amount of one hundred millions, with a rapidity unprecedented in the history of finance, and with a patriotism unquestioned in the payment of the principal and interest. It has steadily decreased the burden of taxation, while it has largely increased the national wealth, the public revenues, and the means of happiness among the people. It has paid off gold obligations to the amount of hundreds of millions of dollars, and replaced them with currency, which has been kept at par. It has funded the floating debt, which had become a menace to the public credit, on terms which have given it the confidence of the business community. It has steadily opposed sectional legislation, and has maintained the personal liberty and equal rights of citizens everywhere, with the same solicitude that it has guarded the property and privileges of the States and individuals. It has given to the country a pure and patriotic administration, which has conducted our affairs at home and abroad with unsullied honor, and has placed the nation in the van of enlightened progress and solid prosperity among the powers of the world. Under the Providence of God, the Republican party has fulfilled its promises to the people. Its future is secured by the intelligence and patriotism of the American people.

2. The Republican party is mindful of its obligations to the loyal women of America for their noble devotion to the cause of freedom, their application for admission to further usefulness is received with satisfaction, and the honest demands of any class of citizens for additional rights should be treated with respectful consideration.

3. The recent amendments to the National Constitution should be cordially maintained, and enforced by appropriate legislation, till the last vestige of discrimination, on account of race, creed, color, or previous condition of servitude, is removed.

4. We are opposed to further grants of public lands to corporations and monopolists, and demand that the National domain be set apart for free settlement by the people.

5. The annual revenue, after paying current debts, should furnish a moderate balance for the reduction of the principal of the public debt, and we hold that taxation should be equalized and reduced as rapidly as the requirements of the public service will permit. Taxation should be limited to the necessities of the Government, economically administered. Exhibiting unparalleled magnanimity in criminally punished no man for political offence, and has warmly welcomed all who gave their loyalty to the Government. It found the industries of the country prostrated, and has developed them to a degree unprecedented in any equal period. It found the national credit impaired, and has restored it. 3. We heartily approve of the action of Congress in granting amnesty to those engaged in the rebellion, and rejoice in the growth of peace and fraternal feeling throughout the land.

4. The Republican party proposes to respect all rights reserved by the people to the States and to Territorial governments. It disapproves of asserting constitutional laws for the purpose of removing evils by the interference with rights not surrendered by the people to either the State or National Government.

5. It is the duty of the General Government to adopt such measures as will tend to encourage American commerce and ship-building.

6. We believe that the modest patriotism, the earnest purpose, sound judgment, practical wisdom, incorruptible integrity and illustrious services of U. S. Grant have commended him to the heart of the American people, and with him at our head we start to-day on a new march to victory.
